DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. The rejection of claim 127 under 35 USC 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter in the Office action mailed 17 December 2002 is withdrawn in view of the amendment filed 17 March 2003.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 123-130 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention for reasons of record in the Office action mailed 17 December 2002.
4. Applicant's arguments filed 17 March 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicants contend that Office guidelines and biotechnology-related court decisions do not explicitly require description of a full-length cDNA sequence. However the applicants fail to provide reasoning why the instant specification describes claims that read on a multitude of species of sequences that include full-length cDNA and fragments of full-length cDNA whose sequence is not provided in the specification or the prior art. As such the rejection is maintained.

It is noted that were claim 126 amended to be limited to sequences no larger than SEQ ID NO:972, the claim would be allowable even though it reads on sequences that hybridize under stringent conditions to SEQ ID NO: 972.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
